"I love having so many creative materials at hand. It's great to be able to collage without having to dig everything out and put it away."

"I like the easy and non-intimidating networking that bubbles up. I'll come again!"

"I've never seen myself as creative so this stretched me in a positive way. I enjoyed the nurturing, fun environment. I'm ordering gift certificates so my friends can experience it."

You'll be welcomed, introduced to the wealth of materials available and offered assistance as needed. This open creativity studio is otherwise unstructured, allowing you the freedom to use the time in the way that best suits you. Art experience is not needed, just come to relax and play!
